

If I Were President

of the

Of The United States

If I were President of the United States of America,
the first thing I'd do is:

If I were President of the United States of America,
I would make a difference by:

If I were President of the United States of America,
I would create a law that says:

If I were President of the United States of America,
I would be proud because :

If I were President of the United States of America,
my family would:

Future President
